

Caledonia Home Health Care and Hospice (CHHC), a division of Northern Counties Health Care, Inc., (NCHC) of St. Johnsbury gets ready to sort and deliver for this year's annual Poinsettia Sale to benefit Hospice. The event has strong volunteer support, dedicating hours and resources to participate in giving back to their community by sorting, and delivering plants to businesses and individuals. The event could not happen "without the support of our hardworking volunteers," said Marcia Eliot, Hospice Volunteer Coordinator, far right. From left, volunteers, Carol Toles, Ron Pal and Claudia McCormack joyfully support this event.
